Welcome To My Life

by Sunrise Avenue

Intro:
Am - F - C - G

Verse1:
This is not really me Youre an angel not asking who I am
You understand
That is not really you
You look at me as if Im something more
Well dream on

Chorus:
Welcome to my life
You see it is not easy
But Im doing all right
Welcome to my dream
Its the only one who needs me
And stays right by my side

Verse2:
Welcome to my wonderland
Itll take time to find out where we stand
In all this mess
There was the first day for me too
And I had no guide and I was lost like you
I still am
But it makes me feel alive

Chorus:
Welcome to my life

                        G
You see it is not easy
                      F           Am
But Im doing all right
                    F
Welcome to my dream
                           G
Its the only one who needs me
                    F
And stays by my side

Dm              F
Once upon a time there was a guy
                C                          G
Who thought lifes a joyride of ladies and red wine
             Dm                                    F
He was so sure hed get the prices and the glory with his rhymes
             C                              G
Hed never need no one to be there beside him          !---!---!-o-!---!
                Dm                                s.Skizze   !---!---!---!-o-!
Now theyre all surrounding me and I feel lonely       !---!(o)!---!---!
          Am          G       Am        G       Am        ! --!---!---!---!
So lonely                                                   !---!---!---!---!
                                                            !---!---!---!---!

Chorus:
                    F
Welcome to my life
                       G
You see it is not easy
                    F           Am
But Im doing all right
                    F
Welcome to my dream
                           G
Its the only one who needs me
               F            Am
And stays by my side

                    F
Welcome to my life
                       G
You see it is not easy
                    F           Am
But Im doing all right
                          F
And welcome to my dream
                           G
Its the only one who needs me
                       F  G  F
And stays right by my side
